The Law Regulating Newspapers and Periodicals

1 Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid the subscribers are responsible for all the numbers sent

3 If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled their bills and ordered their papers discontinued

4 The Courts have decided that a refusal to take a newspaper or period cal from the Post Office with out notifying the publisher and the payment of all arrearages is prima facie evidence of fraud

Subscribers to newspapers or periodicals removing are liable to pay so long as the paper or periodical may be sent to the residence of the party at the time of subscription unless notice is sent of such removal to the publication office

American & Foreign Patents.

R H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of the U S Patent Office Washington, (under the Act of 1837)

76 Stat Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries Caveats Specifications Bonds Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms and with dispatch Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar Assignments recorded at Washington

The Agency is not only the largest in New England but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by (if not immeasurably superior to) any which can be offered them elsewhere The testimonials below given prove that none is more successful at the Patent Office than the subscriber and success is the best proof of advantages and ability He would add that he has abundant reason to believe and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able beyond question to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors

TESTIMONIALS

I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse

CHARLES MASON

Commissioner of Patents

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr R H EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications on all but ONE of which patents have been granted and that is now pending such an unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases and at very reasonable charges.

JOHN TAGGART

During eight months the subscriber in course of his large practice made on twice rejected applications on FIFTEEN APPEALS EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents

The London Quarterly (Conservative

The Edinburgh Review, (Whig)

The North British Review, (Free Church)

The Westminster Review (Liberal)

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory)

The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year They will combine a middle ground between the daily written newspaper sketches speculations and living rumors of the daily Journal and the ponderous Tome of the future historian written after the living interest and excitement of the great political interests of the time shall have passed away It is these critical times that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events and as such in addition to their well established literary scientific and theological character we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public

The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions

THE NEWYORK TRIBUNE.

LARGE PREMIUMS

TO OUR FRIENDS

Each year we have never offered any one a premium for the purpose to extend the circulation of THE TRIBUNE We have printed the cheapest newspaper ever issued in any country selling it for little more than the cost of the white paper has employed no agents to canvass for subscribers, and have allowed no compensation (beyond a copy of our paper) to any of the thousands of generous friends who have personally taken care that the numbers of copies of our several issues circulated in their respective neighborhoods should be at least maintained and if possible increased We have been sparing even of verbal thanks to these friends but have none the less realized the fullness of our obligations for their earnest unselfish painstaking personal efforts

We propose for the present season only—in view of the hardiness of the times and the fact that we are enabled to buy white paper somewhat cheaper than we have hitherto done or can hope to do after the close of the War—to make some small acknowledgment of some of the expense as a slight token of our thanks to these friends we shall see fit to extend the value to them of a subscription (whether original or renewals) to our Weekly and Semi Weekly editions We do not know that we could offer anything of similar value more generally acceptable and suitable than a Gold Pen of the best quality and finish We propose therefore to forward to each person who during the two months ensuing shall send us new subscriptions and payments for THE TRIBUNE as follows

Daily Tribune—$6 per Annum.

Weekly Tribune

For $12, Eleven Copies Weekly Tribune addressed to as many subscribers and Pens or Pens and Cases to value of $1 00

For $10, Eleven Copies Weekly Tribune, to one address and Pens or Pens and Cases to value of $1 00

An English Tribute to American Justice.

The following is an extract of a letter received by a gentleman of this city from one of the ablest writers of England, and is indicative of the opinions which were entertained upon Trent affair by the intelligent foreigners. The letter is under date of Jan. 14th:

DEAR SIR:—I hardly like to write to you in acknowledgment of your very interesting letter of Dec 8, while the affair of the Trent was still pending. Such terrible consequences depended on the turn which that affair might take, that in the moment of suspense under an impending evil which we could do nothing to avert, I preferred to wait for the issue without saying anything which the event might contradict, or in any case render unnecessary. I now write to you under a sense of relief which you will probably appreciate. It would have been enough to disturb one's hopes of human improvement, if at this time of day, the two freest nations of the world had been involved in a war with one another, which would have been, on the American side, persistence in a wrongful act, and on the British side, a war in alliance with slavery. But joyful as I feel that this shame and calamity to both nations has been escaped, my joy is greatly increased by the manner in which your Government has made the desired amicable settlement. They have not only done the right thing, but they have done it in the most straightforward, right feeling, and in every way honorable spirit in which it could possibly have been done. I hardly ventured to hope for anything so explicit. In common with all Europe, I thought that the seizure of the envoys was contrary to international law, and that to let it pass without full reparation, would be to invite insult and injury from all the world.—But the most ardent lovers of freedom in this country felt increasing alarm at the apparent growth in your country of that spirit of lawlessness—that assumption of a dispensing power by the ruling majority, and submission of its will for all general rules of right, which is undoubtedly the besetting sin of unbalanced democracy everywhere; and for the first time, perhaps, in history, the obligation of international law had been directly repudiated in Mr Seward's correspondence with Mr. Adams in which he said that if there was a civil war in Ireland or Scotland, England doubtless would not regard international rules or precedents, even precedents made by herself, and that the United States were now in a similar position.—Just before this the officers of your Government had made a practical application of this doctrine, by doing in New Granada precisely what Napoleon did in the case of the Duke of Enghien, except the shooting. All these things being considered, you can hardly be surprised that your best friends here should have had their misgivings. We knew that the President and his cabinet, who must have at least common sense, could not wish to have a second great war on their hands, and throw away all prospect of succeeding in the first. But we did not know how far they would dare, or feel able, to brave the excited prejudices of the lower part of the public; and if prudence, or a sense of justice induced them to give way, we expected that it would be on the plea of deference to the opinion of Europe, or with some pretext or reservation which might be made to appear to the American public like maintaining the principle even while giving it up. They have shown the needful courage to do this. They have made one of those great demonstrations on the side of morality and principle, by persons in high places, which are needful to keep up the moral tone of a people, and often to arrest its decline. They have declared that they yield to the demand because it is just, and because they will not maintain what is apparently their country's side of any question in opposition to right. They have manifested a high moral tension of justice, moderation, and self-control; an example to other governments, of refusing the bad precedents of others, and throwing themselves on the support of the better impulses, and have thereby done what expedient can never do, to prevent that rankling feeling of vindictive hatred with which we are threatened by your press, and which would be natural enough if you had yielded, under the immediate embarrassments of your position, to a pressure which you thought unjust. A few such acts as this by your Government would revive all the hopes for the futurity of America, and of the world by means of America, which I felt so strongly in my youth. I have long looked upon the struggle against slavery as the one thing most likely to regenerate the American nation; and the present war has, from its beginning, seemed to me full of promise in that respect. I shall not be surprised if this Trent affair, which seemed to threaten such great evils, proves the starting point of a great upward movement, moral and even political, in your country.

I write this without having seen any more of the correspondence between the two governments than is given in the "Times" summary; but there is enough in that to bear out all I have said. The Times would not make the American portion of the correspondence better than it is; though that journal is quite incapable of feeling the admiration due to it.

A DYING HERO. The correspondent of the New York Times, describing the fight at Fort Henry, says:

"The last ball took effect in the Essex, about fifteen minutes before the rebel flag came down, and consequently she failed to be in at the death. One of the disabled men, being told by the physician, as they were drifting down, that he could not live, asked how the fight went on. 'They have surrendered,' was the reply. 'Glory to God!' said he in a feeble voice, and at the same time trying to wave his hand. 'Glory to God!' he repeated. 'I can die now, and don't care.'—In a few moments he was dead."

[We re-publish the following in consequence of an important typographical error which occurred.]

PROMOTIONS IN THE MAINE SIXTH. By a letter from Camp Griffin, (which we have not room to publish in full) we learn that in consequence of a vacancy existing in the Bucksport Company, Sixth Maine regiment, on account of Capt. Snowman resigning, 1st Lieut. B. J. Bock was promoted to the Captaincy, 2d Lieut. T. P. Warwell to the 1st Lieutenancy, and Sergeant J. R. McKinley to the 2d Lieutenancy. The company presented Capt. Bock with a splendid silver-mounted revolver—an appropriate speech being made by Mr. A. S. Condon, and a handsome reply by Capt. B.

It appears that the Southern Commissioners have been denied any space in the Great London Exhibition. The authorities say that the Southern States are supposed to be under the government at Washington; that no goods can be received without the sanction of the United States Commission; that it would be ungracious to refer the Southerners to the Northern Commission; and finally, that as Earl Granville is a member of the British Government, as well as a Commissioner, if he received anybody from the South it might be construed into some implied recognition of the rebels. So the Southern application will not be entertained.

The Paris correspondent of the New York Herald says that no sensation whatever was caused by the arrival of Slidell in the French capital. M. DeMorny, at a soiree given at the English embassy on the 20th ult., said, "Mr Slidell is nothing to my one here." Mrs Slidell expected to be made something of a lioness, but the correspondent of the Herald says, "She has, in fact, from her first arrival to the present moment, been a unique nonentity." He also states that the old element of contrast between France and the United States has not been strained in any particular.

New Music received by river Ditson & Co "Warblings at Morn," by Brinley Richards—"Alpenglockchen" (Alpine Bells), a Tyrolean air for the Piano. By Theodore Oesten "Marie," Polka Mazurka. By A. Cooke. "A Flower from Somewhere," from the German By F. Agnes.

The above are a few of hundreds of pieces for sale in this city by E. F. Duren, who is constantly receiving all standard vocal and instrumental music, and new music as issued.

The have of the reason assigned for the anticipated evacuation of Minnesota is that the army there has been depleted in order to meet the exigencies of the rebels in other localities.

A Memphis dispatch to the Richmond papers enumerates seven rebel steamers that were either burnt or sunk during the trip of the Federal gunboats up Tennessee river, and two that were captured. Only one rebel steamer escaped.

The Mexican Minister at Washington has advices from his government to the effect that there is very little chance of an accommodation between Mexico and her allied invaders, and that the whole Mexican people are determined to resist to the last the European invasion of their country.

It is announced in the confederate papers that General Beauregard reached Corinth on the day that Fort Henry was captured.

A Washington dispatch says the two sons of the President are hanging ably ill. Serious apprehensions are entertained as to the recovery of the youngest.

☞ Clarksville, where it is supposed the rebels will make another stand, is on the Cumberland river, about thirty miles above Fort Donelson, and a nearly half way from that place to Nashville the capital of Tennessee.

The New York Tribune says that when on Monday the news of the victories in the South west reached Washington, and it was known that volunteers were wanted for action upon the right, over ten thousand volunteers were ready for action, 600 men from the Massachusetts and Maine regiments hastened to offer themselves, and set out at once.

When the news of Buckner's surrender of Fort Donelson was announced in the U. S. Senate, the audience in the gallery cheered, and Vice President Hamlin gave vent to both the feelings thus demonstrated, when the presiding officer, with a joy sparkling from his eyes, as he rapped for order in order to silence the applause, said, "The gentlemen in the galleries will be cleared if they do not cease."

APPLETON, J., PRESIDING.

February 19.

State vs. McDonald—Second day.

J. S. Ruiter re called by Government—Produced a letter written by the Cashier of Royalton Bank, and compared the signatures to the bills with the signature of the letter; pointed out the differences, but said the signatures of the bills were attempts to imitate, without succeeding. A $5 bill on the Bluehill Bank, of Dorchester, Massachusetts, shown to witness, was pronounced bad.

On the cross examination, witness was requested to write his name on letter paper, and compare with his signature on a bill shown him, and was asked if there was not as much difference between the two as between the others. Witness admitted that there were differences.

Wm. H. Mills, Cashier of Eastern Bank for 26 years, testified that the bills in the case were all counterfeit—judge more from the engraving than the signatures. Was shown the signature of the Cashier to the letter and compared with the bills—should say they were not by the same. The engraving on genuine bills is done very nicely by machinery—on counterfeit bills it is done by hand, and is much poorer.

W. S. Dennett, Cashier of State of Maine Bank—Nineteen years Cashier. The $5 Bluehill bill, and the three tens on Royalton Bank were pronounced counterfeit.

Cross Ex.—Don't know the signatures; took one of the bills at my bank; gave my opinion then that it was not good. Couldn't say that I could write my name twice exactly alike.

Elias Merrill—called as an expert. Clerk and Treasurer of P. & K. R. R. for eighty years; have recorded as an expert. Should say, on comparison, that the signatures to the bills and to the letter were not written by same hand; the signatures of the cashier to the bills were written by the same hand.

The Government closed their testimony here.

T. H. Garnsey, Esq., opened the defence—contending the testimony showing the uttering of other bills is not to be taken as conclusive of the uttering to Farrar; it only goes to the knowledge of defendant of the character of the bills. The uttering to Farrar must be clearly shown, and by itself. Could Farrar read the bills? His eyesight is shown to be bad. The Government has admitted an affidavit that one H. H. Downes, a lawyer in Lewiston, passed the bill to Farrar instead of defendant, and his testimony is to offset Farrar's. The character of that defendant will also be put in, as high and irreproachable.

The affidavit of defendant was then read to the Jury, in substance as follows: That Henry R. Downes or Presque Isle passes the said bill to Farrar; that Downes induced defendant to ride to Corinth with him, and a young man said a horse could be got cheaper in Brewer, and that Downes passed the man the bill to get a team.

S. P. Stevens called for defendant. Have lived here about ten years. Know defendant a little in 1849, a jobbing trade. Defendant's character has been good, so far as I know. He has a house for me.

Cross Ex.—Defendant's business in part of the year was lumbering at Six Mile Falls. He opened the blue house on Harlow street, kept it about three months; he left it four or six weeks ago. Don't know what his business has been since. Defendant's wife is at Six Miles Falls, I think.

A. T. C. Dodge—Have known Defendant about 25 years. Have never known anything against defendant's character; it is good so far as I know. I let him the blue house; he boarded troops there, and I know of his being at Augusta.

Cross Ex.—Mr. Severance was a partner with McDonald keeping the blue house.

Josiah Colson—Reside in Glenburn; am a carpenter. Have known defendant for 20 or 30 years. His business has been a carpenter; has borne a good reputation so far as I know.

Cross Ex.—I have boarded, at the blue tavern.

S. F. Walker—I found on the prisoner one $10 bill on Com. Bank, Rhode Island; one $5 bill on Bluehill Bank, Massachusetts, and certain other small bills. I paid them all to T. H. Garnsey, Esq., except the Bluehill Bank.

Cross Ex.—I know of young Downes going off with defendant. I started in pursuit of them and found them coming in from Kenduskeag.

Direct—I was called upon by Downes's father to go in search of his son.

Cross Ex.—Have known McDonald since about the 8th or 9th of last August. My business with him has been to take back bad money. Objected to.

Defence closed. Government rested.

Israel B. Norcross—Have known McDonald for three years; saw him then at Belfast; knew him when he kept the blue house. Didn't know about his reputation.

The testimony was closed here and Mr. A. Sanborn commenced the argument for the prisoner at about 12 o'clock, noon.

The case was given to the Jury about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and the Court adjourned to morning.

The other parties indicted for the same offence have all filed affidavits for a continuance, but the Co. Attorney has not admitted the affidavits and the case will probably be tried, with the exception of Osgood's.

OPINION.

State vs. Littlefield, for larceny, tried at August term, 1860. Exceptions overruled—judgment on the verdict. Defendant has sent to Jail since the trial, which may be considered as last term.

EQUITY TERM.

Benedict H. Crocker, Bankrupt, vs. Jos. Crocker. Libel for discharge pending.

A CONSIDERATE OF THE ROOM. There was a very pleasant festival last evening at the hall of Eagle Engine Co. No 2, as a welcome to returned ex-members of the Company, Messrs Eldridge and Edmund Dole from California, and Captain A. G. Farnham of Co. H, 2d Regiment Maine Volunteers. An excellent supper was provided, at which about 75 members, ex-members and invited guests participated. Appropriate speeches and sentiments, and letters from various members in the army and at other places abroad, enlivened the occasion, and the whole affair was one of those pleasant social gatherings for which the Eagles have been renowned in times past. Foreman Geo. H. Chick presided at the table; and the general arrangements were under the superintendence of a committee consisting of Messrs. Chick, R. D. Cluff, and R. E. Sargent.

FACTS FROM AUGUSTA GENERAL HODSDEN'S REPORT. The number of deaths among our 17,000 volunteers, does not exceed that of any other community of like numbers. Of the whole number mustered into the United States service, 681 have been discharged, 188 killed and deceased, 165 are prisoners or missing, and 15,896 are now in the service.

The First Regiment was armed by the State with 728 Springfield Rifled Muskets, which were transferred to the 6th on the return home of the 1st. The 2d regiment was provided with the smooth bore muskets of 1840, by the General Government, and so the 3d regiment. The Rank companies of the 3d now have 155 Springfield muskets from the State. The 4th now have the Windsor Rifle with the sabre bayonet, provided by the State. The 5th have the Springfield Rifles from the General Government. The 6th have the Windsor Shore Rifle from the State. The 8th and 9th were furnished with arms by the General Government at New York. The 10th have the Enfield Rifle from the State, and the 11th and 12th the same arms from the General Government. The 13th have the Enfield Rifle from the State. The 14th have the Austrian Rifle from the General Government. The 15th and the cavalry will be armed by the General Government. Of the arms distributed by the State 1561 Enfield Rifles were purchased in London by Hon. Freeman H. Morse for $31,000, and 1000 Windsor Rifles have been turned in at a cost of $21,000. For 800 Colt's Revolving Pistols $17,000 have been paid. A considerable ordnance of the State have been rifled at a cost of $1,315.

The disbursements on account of the State for the State for the first ten regiments have been $990,878.06. About $5000 of the sum were for the Extra Session of the Legislature, $23,935 for enlistment, for about $90,000 for subsistence and quarters, $50,000 for equipage, $251,370 for clothing, $22,342 for equipments, $68,151 for arms, $4,076 for print. and stationery, $104,111 for bounty, $10,277 for paying off Regiments, $21,919 for wagons hire, ambulances, $24,[illegible] for horses, $48,726 for transportation, and $7,500 for interest on war loan.

☞ We are glad to learn that Mr. Shepard, Principal of the Girls' High School, is so far recovered from the effects of his recent accident by an explosion of acid, as to resume his superintendence of the school. No serious injury has resulted to him from the occurrence.

☞ Mr. Blaine, Speaker of the House, has come to Washington. It is rumored that his business is to make an effort to have the cavalry regiment raised in this State retained in the service—there being some efforts making to have it disbanded.

Hon. George P. Sewall of Oldtown, elected Speaker pro tem. of the House.

☞ A letter from Quartermaster Hook of the Second Maine, states that quite a number of the men in that regiment will probably volunteer for service on the western gunboats, for which men accustomed to navigation are now much needed. Government makes good offers to competent men for an exchange of service. In this condition of things it is hoped that the friends of the regiment will aid as far as possible in sending on recruits to fill up the ranks.

☞ The Augusta correspondent of the Lewiston Journal, says that Bion Bradbury of Eastport, is sick with the measles, and likely to be confined to his room for some weeks.

MORTALITY AMONG LAWYERS. Of the twenty two lawyers who composed the Sagadahoc Bar in 1855, no less than nine have since died, as stated by the Bath Times.

☞ Rev. Mr. Mines has rejoined his old regiment, the Maine Second. They had been without a Chaplain since Mr. Mines' capture, and were very anxious that he should return to them.

MORE GOOD NEWS. A despatch published this morning from Gen. Halleck to Gen. McClellan announces the gratifying intelligence that the rebel general Price has been captured by our army in Arkansas, together with several members of his staff; and also his son, Brigadier General Price.

A CONSIDERATE IN THE PULPIT. The Cairo correspondent of the St. Louis papers relates that the minister of the Presbyterian church there met in his pulpit on the proper time on a recent Sabbath, and the elder of the church refusing to call him, Cam Ponte, on the impulse of the moment, took the pulpit, read a chapter in the Bible, prayed, and delivered a short discourse from the text, "Let not your hearts be troubled. Ye believe in God—believe also in me." The congregation was delight. On coming down from the pulpit, the minister, who had arrived just after the prayer, approached and rendered his thanks; but the Commodore rebuked him for his tardiness, and also for his neglect to take the pulpit himself. [illegible]

EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS. Messrs Fish and Aiken, although not received as Richmond, have been made the medium of a proposition to our Government for a general exchange of all prisoners on a rule, not to release and hold at the South. GENTLEMEN: Having wasted for years the fortunes of Tailors doing a credit business, and having myself proved that system to be utterly wrong for the Retail Tailoring business, I feel compelled to adopt the CASH SYSTEM. It is better for the customer who expects to pay for his garments, as the amount cost by bad debts, under the credit system, is divided between the patrons and the patronized, to the former receive it by paying as much as 30 per cent. less for their garments, and the latter is saved from bankruptcy. Consequently I would invite all Cash paying customers to examine the Stock of Goods now on hand, and see if the prices are not 30 per cent. less than at any other Clothing House in the city. TO THE PUBLIC.

Numerous imitations of the Stewart Stove have appeared in the market during the past few years, and, of late, attempts have been made to counterfeit the name or trade mark. It is deemed highly important that the public should know how to distinguish the genuine article when making purchase of a stove.

Ask for the genuine P. P. STEWART Stove, and see that P. P. Stewart's name is on the cheek plate of each Stove. The success of the old manufacturer, under Stewart's name, has been unequalled.

Andy Johnson Soon to go to Nashville—A Provisional Government will be Organized Union Sentiment in New Orleans—Operations Towards Savannah—Going on—Burnside Occupying Roanoke—Rebels Supposed to be Blowing up Works at Columbus—Two More Rebel Regiments Captured near Fort Donelson—Report that Governor Harris Orders Tennessee to Lay down Arms—Foreign News per Steamer Kangaroo.

NEW YORK, 19th

The Times' Washington despatch says that Andy Johnson proceeds to Nashville as soon as Gen Buell's army is in possession, to assist in organizing a provisional government A full delegation will probably be sent to Congress

The railroad between Louisville and Nashville will be in working order in a fight.

The Herald's Washington despatch says that when General McClellan was asked to-day by a Cabinet officer if he had any news of the capture of Clarksville, he replied "Nothing—let the army have one day's rest, and we will give you all the news you want"

The Secretary of War has referred the case of General Stone to General McClellan, and the latter has ordered a court martial but the court has not yet been organized, and it is a question whether it will be during the present active operations

S A Allen has been appointed agent to accompany our forces into Tennessee to take charge of the cotton crop in behalf of the Government

NEW YORK, 19th

A private letter from New Orleans, dated 10th instant, says there exist a large Union sentiment, and the people are beginning to express themselves pretty freely There is no doubt that on the approach of the Federals, the city will be surrendered without any fighting

FORTRESS MONROE, 18th

The steamer Connecticut arrived from Port Royal this afternoon She left on the 15th—Operations towards Savannah were actively going on

A flag of truce carried several passengers to Norfolk this morning but no news was brought back Gen Burnside's forces still occupy Edenton and pickets have been thrown out adjacent to Roanoke Island No mention is made of any further advance

CHICAGO, 19th

A Cairo special despatch of the 18th, states that Col Buford with a small force, went down the river yesterday, reconnoitering, and when within four miles of Columbus heavy cannonading was heard, but it was not regular On moving across the river where he could obtain view, he discovered a heavy cloud of smoke covering a large space and he believes the rebels are dismounting their guns and blowing up the magazine in preparatory to evacuating

A large number of rebel prisoners were brought down yesterday who belonged on the Cumberland River, and as they passed, their home people were willfully for some place of rendezvous—Many were under the impression that they would be paroled, and when they found they were to be sent North were ready to take any sort of an oath Two thirds manifested a desire to return to their allegiance Some acknowledge that they have been humbugged into the present position

A special despatch from Fort Donelson, dated 18th says two more regiments were captured to day to the East of the entrenchment Numbers of rebel troops came in and delivered themselves up

Twelve thousand stand small arms were taken Many of the rebels destroyed their arms, and a large number were thrown into the river

Taylor's battery was charged on five times Saturday, each time repulsing the enemy with great slaughter

It is currently reported that Governor Harris of Tenn has ordered all Tennesseans to lay down their arms

Latest by Telegraph to Queenstown

The Tuscarora left Cowes on Thursday morning for the westward

The Spanish Ministry deny that any arrangement has at e been made for Mexico, and say that the Mexicans must be free to choose their own Government

Paris 6th A commission has been appointed by the Minister of Foreign Affairs for the regulation of the intermediate line from Mexico to France

Madrid, 6th The Sumter is still lying at St Roch Gibraltar, with not funds enough to pay the expense she has incurred

The Austrian government continues strongly to protest against exchanging Venetia for the throne of Mexico

From the Queen's speech at the opening of Parliament

A Question of great importance and which might have led to very serious consequences arose between Her Majesty's and the government of the United States of America, owing to the seizure and forcible removal of four passengers from on board a British mail packet by the commander of a ship of war of the U S This question has been satisfactorily settled by the restoration of the passengers to British protection and a disavowal by the U S government of the act of violence committed by their naval officer The friendly relations between Her Majesty and the President of the United States are therefore unimpaired Her Majesty willingly appreciates loyalty and patriotism which have been manifested on this occasion by Her Majesty's North American subjects

The wrongs committed by various parties and the successive governments in Mexico upon foreigners resident within the Mexican territory and for which no satisfactory redress could be obtained, have led to the conclusion of a convention between Her Majesty, the Emperor of the French and the Queen of Spain for the purpose of regulating combined operations on the coast of Mexico, with a view to obtain that redress which has hitherto been withheld

GREAT SPECULATION IN PORK A Cincinnati dispatch to the Philadelphia Inquirer, dated Saturday afternoon says

Almost the whole stock of Pork here—worth over six millions of dollars—was taken at market and an advance of a dollar and a half per barrel, or eleven dollars, freely offered but refused

Orders have been telegraphed here, to the commission merchants, to purchase at any price

The cause of this monster speculation is no doubt the prospective opening of the Southern market to Western provisions

Gov Letcher of Virginia, has sent a message to the Legislature which begins in the following stirring strain

A crisis is upon us The result of the reverses to our arms at Mill Springs, Fort Donelson and Roanoke Island appeal in the strongest terms to our patriotism, and demand an exhibition of our energies and uncompromising and stern and determined resolution.

Exigencies of the times are not duly appreciated by many of our people, the dangers which threaten and are justly estimated We are not fully realized their imminence before we can be induced to take action which is necessary to save us from alarming ills, and to avert evils which threaten our existence, our peace, and our organization as a government.

It cannot but be apparent to every mind that the object of our enemies is to cut off our Southern connections by railroad and otherwise, and to defeat the transportation of troops from one point to another with certainty and celerity, as our necessities may demand This result accomplished and one great step will have been taken toward the success and consummation of our subjugation

Brigadier General Edward Price, son of Gen Sterling Price, Colonel Phillips, Major Cross and Captain Crosby, were captured near Warsaw on Sunday night and have been brought here They were captured by Captain Stubbs of the 8th Iowa regiment They had some 500 recruits for old Price in charge, who had just crossed the Osage river, but as Captain Stubbs had only a small force, he did not pursue them

WASHINGTON, 19th

By the President of the United States

A PROCLAMATION

It is recommended to the people of the United States that they assemble in their customary places of meeting, for public solemnities, on the 22d of February instant, and celebrate the anniversary of the birth of the Father of his Country by causing to be read to them his immortal Farewell Address

Given under my hand and the seal of the United States

[Signed] ABRAHAM LINCOLN

By the President
W H SEWARD, Secretary of State

WASHINGTON, 19th

Mr Ward of New York presented in the House to-day a petition of the Merchants and Ship Builders engaged in the sale and manufacture of ship timber, concurred in by the leading ship owners and underwriters, requesting Congress to adopt some measure to prevent the exportation of ship timber during the continuance of the war

Also the memorials of the American Geographical and Statistical Society asking the intervention of Congress in reference to a ship canal connecting the river St Lawrence and the great lakes on the northern boundary, with the Atlantic Ocean in the bay of New York, in any future adjustment of the commercial relations between the United States and Great Britain

Also petitions in favor of the passage of a general and uniform bankrupt law

The principal military confirmations to day by the Senate were of the appointments of Brigadier General Grant to be Major General, and Colonels Garfield and Shields to be Brigadier Generals

Col Garfield's promotion was for gallant and meritorious conduct at the battle of Preston burg, and that of Gen Grant for the same qualities exhibited in the capture of Fort Donelson A very large number of army and volunteer appointments were confirmed, including Captains, Lieutenants and Surgeons

Among the Navy confirmations are the following to be Lieutenants—Alfred T Mahan, Geo C Remey Alexander A Mackenzie, Manson H Wargacher, Samuel D Greene, Charles H Swazey, Thomas F Rane, Bradley P Smith, Cornelius M Schoonmaker Roderick Prentiss, R S Mattock Gilbert C Wiltze, Thomas S Spencer

To be Chief Engineers—Charles Loring, W H Butterfield Edward D Robie, Thomas Wilhamson, W B Brooks, W H Cushman, Charles H Baker P G Peirz

Thomas Biddle of Pennsylvania was confirmed as Secretary of Legation to Brazil.

The following named gentlemen were confirmed as Consuls to the places respectively mentioned—Thomas D Howard, Pennsylvania, Consul to San Juan Del Sur, Franklin Webster, Illinois to Guaymas, Noah L Wilson Indiana, to Tobasco, W J Soldman Massachusetts to Rome; Charles D Tredwell, Pennsylvania, to Acapulco, Rossiter Johnson, California, to Acapulco W Blanchard Estrich of Columbia, to Melbourne, John De La Montagne, New York, to Nanaimo, Thomas H Dudley, New Jersey, to Liverpool in place of Beverly Tucker recalled. Charles S Ogden, Pennsylvania to Quebec, Allen Francis Illinois to Victoria, Vancouver Island, W Irwin, Pennsylvania to Belize.

The joint resolution introduced by Senator Wilson to day for the presentation of medals to the enlisted men in the army, navy and marine corps, who have, or may distinguish themselves in battle during the rebellion, provided that the amount of money be appropriated for the purpose of having proper medals of honor struck, or other suitable metal, with appropriate emblems or devices, for presentation by Congress to the non commissioned officers and privates of the volunteers and marine corps, and the warrant and petty officers and seamen of the navy, of the United States, who have or may hereafter distinguish themselves by any act of gallantry or bravery during the present war, against the rebellion

The last advices from Europe are of dates previous to the receipt there of the news of the first of our series of victories, but the Secretary of State says he sees indications of a satisfactory reaction in favor of the United States in Great Britain, as well as throughout the Continent, and, especially, satisfaction is experienced over the congratulations upon the settlement of the Trent affair received from Prussia and Italy It is said they are not only generous, but even touching appeals to the American people to restore, maintain and preserve the Federal Union The settlement of the Trent affair is regarded as the bow of promise of peace and freedom of commerce

NEW YORK, 18

The gunboat Connecticut, from Key West via Port Royal 16th, has arrived Among the passengers are Commander French, late of the sloop of war Preble and the crew of the schooner Mr. Barbour, captured by the DeSoto in Sarrataria Bay

When the Connecticut left Port Royal there was a rumor that Savannah would certainly be captured in two or three days

The Federal forces had taken possession of the island of Defuciam in the Savannah River, upon which a battery was being erected

Our gunboats had cut off the communication with Fort Pulaski and captured a rebel steamer belonging to Tatnall's fleet

ST LOUIS, 19th

The following will appear in the morning papers of tomorrow

Headquarters, Dept of Mo
St. Louis, Feb 19

The Major General commanding this Department congratulates Flag Officer Foote Brigadier General Grant and the brave officers and men under their command on the recent brilliant victories on Tennessee and Cumberland rivers the war is not ended Prepare for new conflicts and new victories Troops are concentrating from all points We shall soon have an army that will be irresistible The Union Flag must be restored everywhere and the enthralled Union men of the South must be set free The soldiers and sailors of the Great West are ready and willing to do this, the time and place have been determined, and victory and glory await the brave

By order of Major General Halleck
H W MELLAN,
Adjutant General.

In order that nothing may occur to mar the contemplated celebration of Washington's birthday the Provost Marshal has ordered that all drinking saloons be closed from sunrise of Saturday till sunrise of Monday The Provost Marshal also orders that no pig or bar lead shall be shipped from this port hereafter without special permit from his office

About five thousand infantry two or three batteries of artillery a large number of mules and wagons and a immense quantity of stores &c left to-day for the Cumberland

General Pope and staff left this morning for Cairo

About 9000 Fort Donelson prisoners, including some forty officers arrived to day, and will be forwarded to some point east

The sick and wounded from Fort Donelson will be returned to their own States as far as possible Quite a number arrived here to-day and were sent to the Central Hospital

CAIRO, 19th

A despatch from the Cumberland river says Clarksville is being evacuated, and the rebels are going to Nashville

FREDERICK MD, 19th

On Saturday night at a congratulatory dinner to Hon Charles J Faulkner at Martinsburg Va, the gentleman in a speech, said in effect that the policy of secession, as it had been carried out was a failure, and had been accompanied with an unnecessary waste of life, the better blood of the South, and immense sacrifice of property If this course was continued it would pile ruin upon ruin The public sentiment of Western Virginia was opposed to it He also intimated that he had no affiliation with those who wished the present war would continue

His remarks were acquiesced in by the large audience present, and he had no doubt that they reflected the true sentiments of nine tenths of the people of the upper counties of the Potomac

News received here that General Price and his staff and whole army have been captured has set the city and camps in a furore of joy

Reports from usually reliable sources say that between 300 and 400 of The Berkeley county militia have deserted in a body, and are en route to cross the Potomac, and join our ranks

CAIRO, 19th

It is believed now that a portion of the rebel prisoners will be sent to Alton, and others to Chicago, Fort Wayne and Detroit

Troops are continually arriving, and departing for the rear of war

It is believed that, if permitted to do so many of the rebel prisoners would gladly take up arms on the side of the Union Numbers of the privates declare that they have seen enough of secession The officers, however, are generally very morose, and bitter in their expressions against the North

In addition to the killed and wounded previously reported, are the 40th Illinois Commissary and Sergeant Traverse killed, Lieut Col Maltby, ball in the leg, Lieut. Boyce, Cornelius Shay, George Poppleton, wounded

FORT DONELSON, 17

The great fire which was seen up the river from this point last night was caused by the burning of the Tennessee Rolling Mill, four miles from here by our gunboats. The works had been used by the rebels in the manufacture of shot and shell and other material It was an extensive concern

Gen Grant has promulgated a most stringent order against plundering from the inhabitants, also against stealing property taken

Before surrendering, the rebels threw the most of their late mails into the river Col Markland, Postal Director, however, succeeded in securing a number of mail bags, and some outside letters supposed to contain important information

Floyd's brigade, fearing they might be taken, threw all their arms into the river The crew of the gunboats are now engaged fishing them out

Capt Dixon, the chief of the rebel artillery, and the engineer who constructed the fortifications, was killed in the bombardment of Friday, in one of his own batteries.

CHICAGO, 19th

The Tribune's correspondent in giving a description of the battle at Fort Donelson, says that when Col Craft's brigade, which had been ordered to reinforce Gen. McClernand sealed up in the rear of the 30th and 31st Illinois and 46th Kentucky, these regiments were lying down as they crest of the hill They rose, and not knowing whether the force in their rear was friend or foe the 25th Kentucky supposing them to be rebels, poured in a rolling volley on them, which did terrible execution and was sufficient to throw the entire brigade into disorder at once, which was soon a panic. Some threw down their guns and accoutrements and fled [illegible] This was all made right afterwards [illegible] the opportunity and of assault upon Schwenk's and Bresser's battery, capturing five guns and taking possession of Gen. McClernand's headquarters and driving our forces nearly a mile and a half

Instead, however, of adhering to their supposed intentions to escape, the rebels resolved to follow up their advantage by pursuit

At this juncture General Wallace's division was thrown in front, and took a position on a ridge, with Taylor's battery in the centre of the road The rebels formed on the ridge which General McClernand had occupied, and, flushed with success, moved forward As soon as they came within range Taylor opened on them with grape and canister and shell, causing the rebels to quail and come to a halt, and as the infantry advanced, they began to fall back, and we recovered the ground previously lost

SENATE

Mr Sumner presented a petition of the citizens of New York, that the name of South Carolina be expunged from the list of States, and that her territory be divided between North Carolina and Georgia

The bill for reorganizing the Navy Department was taken up

After the adoption of some amendments, the bill was laid over

The bill in relation to circuit and district courts was passed

Mr Wilson's joint resolution authorizing the President to present medals to enlisted men of the army, navy and marine corps, who have distinguished themselves in the war Adopted

The bill for the better organization of cavalry was passed

The Senate then went into executive session

HOUSE

A resolution was adopted calling on the Secretaries of War and Navy for a statement of the expenses of transportation for the last five years of arms ammunition, troops, &c, between the Atlantic and any of the Gulf ports to the Pacific, also calling on the Secretary of State for the last annual report of the Governor of Colorado

Mr Hickman of Pennsylvania offered the following preamble and resolution

Whereas, The Baltimore Clipper of this date contains the following publication

"Documents Found During Yesterday The police visited the office of the 'South' newspaper, and took possession of a number of letters of Senators Bayard and Saulsbury of Delaware, and the notorious Vallandingham of Ohio The documents contain treasonable sentiments in regard to preserving Dixie, and various suggestions as to how the Yankees might be defeated" therefore—

Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary be directed to inquire into the truth of the allegation herein made against C L Vallandingham a member of this House with power to send for persons and papers, etc, and report hereon

Mr Vallandigham spiritedly defended himself

Mr Hickman said that, having heard him express more loyalty than heretofore he should withdraw the resolution

Mr Wickliffe announced the capture of Price and his army

Long and continued applause followed the announcement

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Senate amendments to the Treasury Note bill

Messrs Spaulding, Pomeroy, Calvert, Morrill Dunn and others debated its provisions

The committee reported its action to the House

Pending the vote on concurring thereon, the House adjourned

Legislature of Maine.

Tuesday, Feb 18

SENATE

Mr Granger, by leave, introduced the following resolve, which was twice read and passed to be engrossed under a suspension of the rules, and by a unanimous vote

STATE OF MAINE

Resolve relating to recent national victories

Resolved, That the Legislature for ourselves and behalf of the State, tender to the gallant officers and soldiers of the army, and to the officers and soldiers of the navy of the United States, our warmest thanks for the brilliant victories recently won by their valor and skill in the States of Georgia, South Carolina Missouri, North Carolina, Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee and that the Governor be requested to order a salute to be fired in testimony of our appreciation of the honor and glory which these signal successes reflect on the army of the Union

Mr Pease offered the following resolve, which was twice read, and passed under a suspension of the rules

STATE OF MAINE

Resolve relating to recent national victories

Resolved, That the Legislature of Maine received the intelligence of the recent success of our soldiers with heartfelt gratitude to Almighty God, and we would render to Him for this renewed token of His kindness the homage of our souls

Passed to be enacted—An act to repeal certain acts giving bounty on wolves and bears.

HOUSE.

The Speaker being absent—

On motion of Mr Dingley of Auburn,

Ordered, That during absence of the Speaker, Hon Geo P Sewall of Oldtown be Speaker pro tem

Passed to be engrossed—An act to extend the term for organizing the Aroostook and St Andrews Branch Railroad Company, and for the extension of term for locating and building said

Bill an act to provide in part for the expenditures of Government was, on motion of Mr Blake of Bangor, recommitted

Mr Blake objected to the provision of the bill providing pay to Commissioners of Banks. He commented upon the duties of the Commissioners as being of little practical value, and suggested that one man would do the business much better He moved to amend by striking out $1200 and insert $800.

Mr [illegible] of Windsor objected to striking out the [illegible] the Commissioners [illegible] the day of one or two Commissioners [illegible]

Mr. [illegible] been moved to amend by striking the appropriation for Bank Commissioners, and the amendment was adopted

Mr Blake further moved to strike out the appropriation for the deficiency to Penobscot Indians for 1861 He called attention to the great difference in the expenditures between the Penobscot tribe and that of the Passamaquoddy tribe. There is but little difference in numbers, and yet the expenditures for the Penobscot tribe greatly exceed those of the Passamaquoddy tribe.

Mr Woodcock of Princeton said that the Committee on Indian Affairs had not taken action on the matter of Indian appropriations

The appropriation for the Indians was stricken out Passed to be engrossed as amended

A PROVINCIAL OPINION The St John Globe says

If the late report of Federal success be true there can be no doubt that the American cause in Europe will be greatly advanced The late successes will give prestige to the American war, and will arrest the half formed determination of the Emperor of the French to no longer delay his interference With the capture of Fort Henry and the planting of the Union flag once more on the soil of Tennessee, with the western successes, and the apparently great achievements at Roanoke Island, the North can boldly reply to any reproaches made from Europe, that it has only begun, (which, sarcastic as it may appear, is the truth), to put its ponderous forces in motion, and to crush out the rebellion that has, so far, apparently made such good progress

SINGULAR AFFECTION OF A MARE FOR A CALF A friend of ours has a very knowing little mare For the past two weeks she has had a young calf tied beside her Singularly enough, the mare seemed to regard the calf as her colt, and bestowed upon him all the affection of a mother She would caress it after the manner of her kind and if little boy wandered away, would manifest the most violent demonstrations of anxiety and unhappiness, rearing pawing and neighing in the most passionate manner When taken from the barn for water, if little boy bleated, she would escape if possible, and rush with frantic haste to her side In short, not one mare in fifty appears so dotingly fond of her colt, as did this one of the calf And little boy seemed to be equally fond of his adopted mother, manifesting his unhappiness if she was taken away as calves usually do —Aroostook

BOOTS AND SHOES

PLUMER'S PATENT ANATOMICAL LASTS!

[From J. V. C. Smith, M. D., formerly Mayor of Boston.]

PLUMER'S PATENT BOOTS

THE Undersigned has worn a pair of these IMPROVED boots, and feels grateful to the Inventor for the comfort derived from them. The nice adjustment of the sole to every part of the under surface of the foot, is an important circumstance which seems to have been entirely overlooked till Dr. Plumer planned his Last and Boot upon truly scientific principles.

Those who have once had an opportunity to test the real advantages of these philosophically made Boots, will hardly be reconciled to wear any other.

J. V. C. SMITH

BOSTON, July 26, 1861.

J. C. PLUMER, M. D.

Dear Sir—I am greatly delighted with your newly invented boots which I have worn during the past winter and only wonder that the world should have been so stupid as not to have made the discovery half a century ago. Any one with a grain of common sense and a moments reflection, cannot fail to see that your "EASY BOOTS AND SHOES" are perfectly adapted to the foot; that wonderful piece of Nature's Mechanism, giving to every portion of it a fair and equal support; and I am sure that those who once make trial of your new invention will never go back to the old fashioned lasts or shoes, which are so prolific of corns, bunions, and a thousand other troubles. Your "Patent Boots" seems to be part and parcel of our Physical structure, supporting the foot in all, giving steadiness to the gait, and promoting in an equal degree, especially in a long over rough surface.

I wish I knew, some means by which I could make known to every man, woman and child in Christendom, the nature and importance of your invention.

Very truly yours,

DR. PLUMER—

Dear Sir—Having learned the principle upon which your "Anatomical Last" is made, I was favorably impressed as to its efficiency in relieving a difficulty which all have experienced, who have to walk considerably, viz: severe pain in the feet after much walking. After having worn the boots made upon the "Anatomical Last," I found my anticipations more than realized. I can walk nearly all day without experiencing the above named difficulty in the least degree. I also escaped the torturing process of breaking in my boots, for they were as easy at first as after they had been worn.

HAIR RESTORATIVE

AND

is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilirating and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, invigorates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renews the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and scientifically combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, so that all nervous and other irritation, it is also perfectly exhilirating in its effects, and yet it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those combined having powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world; both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science and also by all who have suffered by the ignorance, want of medical skill or knowledge, even to so that reliefs follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous diseases to which poor humanity is constantly liable; such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, faintness, nervous irritability, neuralgia, palpitation of the heart, melancholy, hypochondriasis, night sweats, languor, giddiness, and all that class of cases so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called female weaknesses and irregularities. Also, liver derangements or torpidity, and liver complaints, diseases of the kidneys, scalding or incontinence of the urine, or any general derangement of the urinary organs; pain in the back, loins and between the shoulders, predisposition to cold feet, hot flashes, burning in the flesh, cough, emaciation, difficulty of breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more ills, but we have space only to say it will not only cure the destiny following chills and fever, but prevent all attacks arising from Miasmatic influences, and cure the disease at once, if already attacked. And as it acts directly and persistently upon the military system, among the U. S. troops, producing, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travelers should have a bottle with them, and all should take a table spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits—students, ministers, literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then again, the cordial is a perfect mother's relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety! There is no mistake about it, this cordial is all the claim for it. Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline, not only of your daughters, before it be too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often goes down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are oftentimes unloved up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need. O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists.

Infallible Liniment!

Great External Remedy

For Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Stiff Neck and Joints, Sprains, Bruises, Cuts and Wounds, Piles, Headache, and all Rheumatic and Nervous Disorders.

FOR all of which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. This Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN it is unrivalled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically, RHEUMATIC DISORDERS of every kind and in thousands of cases where it has been used, it has never been known to fail.

For NEURALGIA, it will afford immediate relief in every case, however distressing.

It will relieve the worst cases of HEADACHE in three minutes and is warranted to do it.

TOOTHACHE also will cure instantly.

For NERVOUS DEBILITY and GENERAL LASSITUDE arising from intemperance or excess, this Liniment is most happy and unfailing remedy.—Acting directly upon the nervous tissues, it strengthens and revivifies the system, and restores to its elasticity and vigor.

FOR PILES—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a radical cure.

QUINSY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes extremely malignant and dangerous, but a timely application of this Liniment will never fail to cure.

SPRAINS are sometimes very obstinate, and enlargement of the joints is liable to occur if neglected. The worst case may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days.

BRUISES, CUTS, WOUNDS, SORES, ULCERS, BURNS AND SCALDS, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to directions. Also, CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET, and INSECT BITES AND STINGS.

Every Horse Owner

should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

Over four hundred voluntary testimonials to the wonderful curative powers of this Liniment have been received within the last two years, and many of them from persons in the highest ranks of life.

CAUTION.

To avoid imposition, observe the signature and likeness of Dr. Stephen Sweet on every label, and also "Stephen Sweet's Infallible Liniment" blown in the glass of each bottle, without which none are genuine.
